1. Traditionally, Asian-American Churches have been apolitical. In your opinion, why is that?
2. From your perspective, how involved in politics should you, as pastors/your congregation/churches be?
3. What are the dangers and benefits of you/your congregation/church getting involved in politics?
4. What are some things we can do to stay balanced and neutral in our political discussions? Or, do you believe we shouldn't stay balanced and neutral?
5. How "political" have you been in your church? How has your congregation/church responded?
6. 2016 is a presidential election year. What have/will you do, if anything, regarding it in your church? Why?
